

What They Don't Tell You About Assisted Living

The apartments aren't just like home. They're better. Better because not only are they larger than you thought, they come with some pretty awesome perks too. Like cleaning, laundry service and gourmet meals by our J&W trained executive chef. And how about activities, and someone to drive you to your appointments and shopping.

The apartments at Scandinavian Assisted Living are spacious enough to accommodate lots of your personal furniture and other belongings. Because we know you want to make it feel just like home. Except it's better.
